SCIENCE RESEARCH PAPER COMPETITION

COMPETITION DETAILS

The New Mexico Junior Academy of Science (NMJAS), an affiliate of the New Mexico Academy of Science (NMAS), uses the paper competition to provide students with opportunity and incentive to learn a crucial part of scientific work: communicating their work to others. The NMJAS Science Research Paper Competition is an annual written and oral technical paper competition open to all New Mexico public, private, or home-schooled middle and high school students. Students must have a research project, but they are not required to compete in science fair. Students compete in the Junior Division (grades 6-8) or the Senior Division (grades 9-12).
